COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

Aldeyra is a biotechnology company that focuses on developing treatments for immune-related illnesses. One of Aldeyra's investigational treatments, reproxalap, is for the treatment of dry eye disease.

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) the results of the reproxalap trials were inconsistent, rendering any positive findings to be unreliable; and (2) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID ALDEYRA'S STOCK DROP?

On March 17, 2026, Aldeyra announced that reproxalap trials found concerns with the reliability and meaningfulness in the positive findings. On this news, Aldeyra's stock price fell 70.7%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Aldeyra securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Aldeyra class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
